

helps children communicate

First words

Talk to your child using the language you would naturally use at home. If your child is not doing what is shown for their age, look for help: talk to your health visitor, GP or contact your local speech and language therapist directly. For advice and further information, visit:

www.talkingpoint.org.uk

Supported by openreach
A BT Group business

